1. Bunny Sock Toy

Transform an old sock into an adorable bunny toy for your dog. Fill it with stuffing or crinkle paper to give it a fun texture. Sew some floppy ears using felt or use pom-poms for added cuteness.

2. Carrot Rope Toy

Dogs love to play tug-of-war, and what better way to do it than with a festive carrot rope toy? Braid together several strands of old t-shirts, preferably in orange and green colors, to create a durable toy your dog will enjoy pulling and chewing.

3. Egg Hunt Sensory Toy

Engage your dog's senses with an interactive egg hunt toy. Fill a plastic container with small treats and toys, close it tightly, and poke several holes in it. Watch your dog's excitement as they try to retrieve the hidden treasures.

4. Tennis Ball Chicks

If your dog is a fan of tennis balls, they'll go crazy for these cute tennis ball chicks. Simply draw or glue eyes and a beak onto the ball to transform it into a festive Easter companion.

5. Frozen Treats

Easter can sometimes be warm, so treat your dog to some refreshing homemade frozen treats. Mix yogurt, mashed banana, and a splash of honey, pour it into ice molds, and freeze them. Your dog will enjoy a delicious and cooling snack.

6. Squeaky Egg Plushies

Create some playful Easter-themed plush toys for your furry friend. Sew together colorful fabric in the shape of eggs, stuff them, and insert a squeaker. Each time your dog chews or squeezes the toy, it will make an exciting sound.

7. Puzzle Bunny Board

Stimulate your dog's problem-solving skills with a DIY puzzle bunny board game. Attach treat-filled plastic cups or hollow balls to a wooden board, and challenge your pup to figure out how to remove them. It's a mentally stimulating activity that can provide hours of entertainment.

8. Bunny Tug Toy

Create a cute bunny-themed tug toy using some old t-shirts or fleece fabric. Cut strips of fabric, braid them together, and shape them into bunny ears. Your dog will enjoy tugging and playing with this homemade toy.

9. Bunny Treat Dispenser

Challenge your dog's treat-seeking abilities with a bunny treat dispenser. Create a cone shape out of cardboard or fabric, fill it with your dog's favorite treats, and watch them roll the dispenser around to access their delicious rewards.

10. Easter Egg Ball Toys

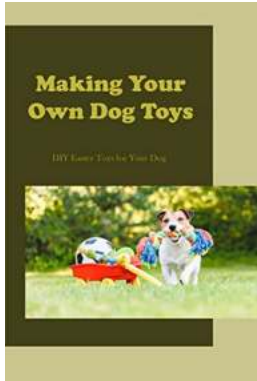

Turn regular tennis balls into Easter-themed toys by decorating them with non-toxic paints. Get creative by painting colorful patterns or drawing little bunnies and chicks. Your dog will have a blast chasing these unique Easter egg ball toys.
