Miracles happen every day to people from all walks of life. You'll be inspired, comforted and amazed by these 101 stories, including:

- Sheila, who suspected she was adopted, and then on vacation was randomly seated next to a fellow traveler who turned out to be her biological sister.
- Tiffany, whose inner voice warned her to go home instead of seeking shelter from a rainstorm under a car dealer's awning. The car dealership ended up being destroyed minutes later by a tornado.
- Susan, whose daughter was on her way to buy drugs when she almost had a car accident. In a miraculous coincidence, the other driver turned out to be her Narcotics Anonymous sponsor, who then saved her.
- Judee, who refused to remarry after a divorce, but then had a dream in which she envisioned herself walking down the aisle. Later, she met the same man and had the exact same wedding she had seen while asleep.
- The U.S. soldier's daughter in Germany who called her grandfather's cell phone on 9/11 to make sure he was okay. This caused him to step out of the line to enter the Pentagon—moments before the airplane hit.
