The iTunes Movie Guru (Emeritus) shares his selection of the 113 best unknown and most imaginative science fiction, fantasy and horror movies available on demand and on DVD, excerpted from KILLER B's Volumes 1 & 2.

We live in an age of unprecedented access to movies. Too bad most of them suck. Netflix, iTunes, Amazon, Vudu, Hulu Plus... Thousands and thousands of movies are available at your fingertips. But with so many titles, the big question remains: How do you find a GOOD movie?

The answer: The KILLER B's Movie Guide series, which makes full use of the "on demand" advantage: easy access to lesser-known films. It's just as easy to find a hidden gem as a recent blockbuster...if you know what you're looking for. The KILLER B's Movie Guide series lets you know what to look for.

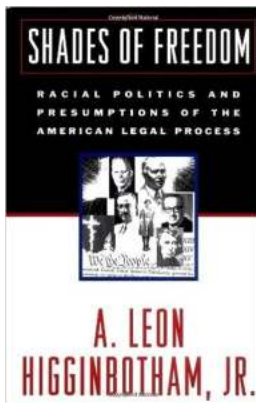

Whatever you call them -- buried treasures, sleepers, hidden gems, or "killer" B movies -- these are great little films that never got the publicity, distribution or attention they needed to allow their audience to find them. Killer B's are terrific but little-known movies, designed with a general audience in mind -- no "cult classics," no "forgotten favorites," no "so bad they're good" flicks...just the delight of discovering some excellent, seldom-seen cinema. Life's too short to watch bad films. Don't be stung by bad movies—put the KILLER B's Movie Guide series to work for you, and find a few good movies you've (possibly) never heard of and (probably) never seen!
