Save The Date Cards are a great way to let your guests know that there's a wedding being planned. And they are especially considerate to send in order to notify in advance those guests whom you really want to attend your wedding who will be traveling long distances or may have to make special work arrangements.

Since Save The Date cards have only been in use since the 1990s, there really are no particular rules of etiquette for their use. So you're free to do whatever you like with them. Go ahead! Express yourself!

And don't worry about being all prim and proper and formal....unless you really want to, that is.

This guide features fun and creative Save The Date Ideas that will hopefully lead you in the right direction while planning your wedding.

Whatever you end up creating, just make sure that you have fun and let your personalities shine through!
