1. Understand the Exam Format

Does it Ace the ACE Test?

Carefully critique your edtech web 2.0 tool or app using the following criteria:

- Is it device Agnostic?
- How much does it Cost?
- Is it Easy to use?

Note that this test does NOT critique the impact on learning or how well it meets your learning objectives – it merely assesses how PRAGMATIC the tool is to integrate into your classroom.

Area	Indicators (Points)
A Agnostic	It can work on any Internet-capable device. In addition, mobile apps may be available. (4)
	It is a mobile app available for both Android and iOS; a web-based interface may be available. (3)
	It is a mobile app available for one specific platform (for example, only iOS or iPads), but no web-based interface. (2)
	The tool is proprietary to itself; for example, a wi-fi clicker system and program that only does that one function. (1)
C Cost	The tool is free! (4)
	It has a minimal one time or annual cost. For apps, $1.99 or less; for site subscriptions, $45 a year or less. (3)
	The cost for the tool is considerable; $2.00 to $4.99 as an app, $46 to $120 a year for a site subscription. (2)
	The tool is expensive; $5.00 or more for an app, more than $120 a year for a site subscription. (1)
E Easy	The tool is very easy to use; you hardly even need directions. (4)
	It takes a bit of time and a few references to directions to comfortably use it. (3)
	The learning curve is considerable; put aside an hour to get the hang of it. (2)
	It takes several detailed video tutorials or a PD with an expert to really understand how to use it. (1)

Add up the points and divide by 3 to get your ACE Score (ACES): _____

Score	Descriptor and Explanation
4 ACES (3.66+)	Highly Recommended. Try it out immediately!
3 ACES (2.66 to 3.33)	Strongly Recommended. There are some hurdles in cost, learning time and/or accessibility.
2 ACES (1.66 to 2.33)	Somewhat Recommended. Before investing considerable time and money, you may want to consider other options.
1 ACE (1.00 to 1.33)	Not Recommended. It's highly likely another tool is more pragmatic for a classroom teacher.
