The author is fond of writing. Having read thousands of books on varied themes, he got the urge to share his stories with the majority readership. Though most of his stories are fictional, these brush shoulders with real-life happenings. The diverse themes encompass human nature, psychology and human behaviours in realms of reality. Being a diehard soldier, he has blended the army sphere into his stories.

In his pensive and thoughtful moods, he has delved into writing on abstract thoughts which reflect society's psyche, lack of compassion, shenanigans and greed. The world is passing through an extremely critical and diabolic period. The doomsday trigger point is round the corner. It requires just one insane person to start a nuclear war resulting in mass destruction and extinction of many species of the universe. These concerns have been termed as 'Random Thoughts' aimed at galvanising mass consciousness and salvaging the lost paradise. So as to make the reading more interesting, these thoughts have been interspersed in-between stories.
