

Better The Life Of Your Pet With 10 Cat Approved Projects

Are you a proud cat owner looking for creative ways to improve the well-being of your feline friend? Look no further! In this article, we will explore ten cat-approved projects that aim to enhance your pet's life. From entertainment to mental stimulation and comfort, these projects will provide endless fun and happiness for your beloved companion.

1. DIY Cat Scratching Post

We all know how much our furry friends love to scratch. Instead of letting them ruin your furniture, why not build them a custom scratching post? You can easily create one using a wooden post, carpet remnants, and some sisal rope. Not only will this project save your upholstery, but it will also provide a designated spot for your cat to sharpen their claws.

2. Indoor Cat Garden

Bring the outdoors inside with a cat garden! Create a mini indoor garden with cat-friendly plants like catnip, wheatgrass, and cat thyme. Cats love exploring and chewing on plants, and these green additions will provide mental stimulation and fresh air. Just make sure to research which plants are safe for your cat beforehand.

3. DIY Puzzle Feeder

Challenge your cat's problem-solving skills with a DIY puzzle feeder. Craft a simple food dispenser using an empty plastic bottle and some treats. This project will not only keep your cat entertained and mentally stimulated but also encourage them to work for their food. It's a win-win!

4. Window Perch

Cats are natural born sunbathers. Give them the perfect spot to bask in the sunlight by installing a window perch. You can either purchase a ready-made one or create a custom window seat using a sturdy board covered with comfy cushions. This project will provide your cat with endless entertainment and relaxation, all while enjoying the view outside.

5. Cat Playground

Build an indoor playground for your feline friend using shelves, ramps, and tunnels. Cats love to climb, explore, and hide, and this project will enhance their natural instincts while keeping them physically active. Let your imagination run wild and create a unique playground that your cat will love to explore.

6. DIY Cat Toys

Engage your cat's playful side with homemade toys. From simple yarn balls to interactive treat puzzles, there are endless possibilities for DIY cat toys. Experiment with different textures, sounds, and movements to find what captivates your cat's attention the most.

7. Cat Hammock

Who says hammocks are only for humans? Create a cozy spot for your cat to relax and nap with a cat hammock. You can either purchase a pre-made one or craft a custom hammock using fabric and a sturdy frame. Your cat will appreciate this comfortable sanctuary for their much-needed catnaps.

8. Cat TV

Provide entertainment for your cat with a dedicated "Cat TV" window shelf. Place a bird feeder or a fish tank outside the window and set up a perch for your cat to comfortably watch the action. This project will captivate your cat's attention and stimulate their natural hunting instincts.

9. DIY Catnip Toys

Catnip is like a magic herb for our feline friends. Sprinkle some dried catnip on a fabric square and sew it up to create a simple catnip toy. This project will provide endless entertainment for your cat while also promoting exercise and mental stimulation.

10. Catio

If you want to give your cat a taste of the great outdoors while keeping them safe, consider building a catio. A catio is an enclosed outdoor space specifically designed for cats. It allows them to experience fresh air, sunshine, and nature while protecting them from potential dangers. Building a catio can range from a simple enclosure to an elaborate outdoor playground, depending on your space and budget.

By embarking on these ten cat-approved projects, you can truly enhance the life of your beloved pet. Not only will your cat experience endless joy and stimulation, but you will also enjoy the satisfaction of knowing you provided them with the best life possible as a loving and responsible pet owner. So, don't wait any longer – start building and creating a paradise for your feline friend today!

Problem solving for cat people.

Sure, your cat cleans itself, uses a litter box, and is happy to pitch in by ridding your basement of the occasional unwanted rodent. But she is also a barely domesticated wild animal whose compulsions might include shredding upholstery, knocking over plants, and trying to dominate the “territory” you call home. How to accommodate your pet’s feral instincts while reducing these problem areas in your relationship? Through engineering! Conceived by aerospace engineer Mac

Delaney, here are ten ingenious DIY projects that address the quirks of cat behavior head-on, with results that will help both your cat and you to live happily —together—ever after.

DIY projects include:

cat shelf

drinking fountain

cat cave

scratcher

bunk beds

treat slot machine

cat door

litter box cabinet

cat wheel
