'Blended Hearts' is one woman's account of an attempt to bridge the gap between step-parenting and co-parenting.

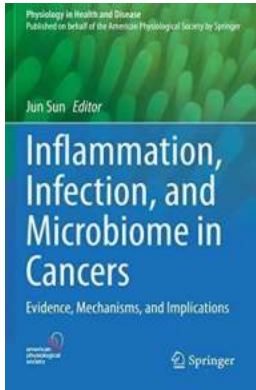

In today's world, the chances of marrying someone who doesn't have children are slim; most think that because the two of you are in love, those around you will 'love' as well. Perhaps that's true, but loving and blending are two different things.

How you handle the conflicts could mean the difference in a blended heart or a broken one.
