Fear on the Island: A compelling mystery with a dark twist. (Detective Liam O'Reilly book 3)

From bestselling author: Stewart Giles comes book 3 in the brilliant Detective Liam O'Reilly series.

It's mid-summer on the island of Guernsey and Detective Liam O'Reilly is winding down for the day.

He's enjoying a quiet drink with his daughter when a man in bike leathers walks inside the pub. O'Reilly doesn't even register him until he hears the gunshot. The man has taken out a gun and shot the barman twice in the face. O'Reilly takes hold of his daughter and throws her to the floor.

"Not everything is as it seems." Says the gunman as he leaves the people inside the pub with something to think about before he calmly walks out of the pub.

Then another man is shot dead in broad daylight. A figure in leathers tells the witnesses the same thing: "Not everything is as it seems."

O'Reilly and his team have no idea what is going on. Even the experienced Irish detective really doesn't have a clue what this is all about.

When the gunman takes a third victim the people on the island start to panic. Fear is rife and confidence in the police is at an all-time low.

O'Reilly knows it's only a matter of time before this madman strikes again, but he's running out of ideas. With his team working around the clock and running on empty, he knows time is running out before the most confusing killer he's ever come across strikes again.

What readers are saying about Fear on the Island

The DI Liam O'Reilly series just keeps getting better and better! Fear on The Island is fast-paced and gripping, drawing you in from the start with an interesting plot and likeable characters that are continuing to develop. If you enjoy detective crime thrillers this is a great read set in Guernsey. Can't wait for the the next one!— Kirsty

Wow what a fantastic read, Liam is starting to grow on me as a very clever copper, it's the best so far in this series so let's bring on more of O'Reilly the hero of Guernsey. — Booklover Bev

Each new Detective Liam O'Reilly book just gets better and better. Fear on the Island is fast paced as our DI is faced with a clever killer seen by everyone but identifiable by no one. In between the investigation details we get glimpses into life on the island of Guernsey and our DI's restricted personal life. A quick, satisfying read.- Alison
