Von Brandenburg's artistic practice is deeply rooted in the exploration of cultural rituals, myths, and traditions. She draws inspiration from the worlds of theater, opera, and film, utilizing their aesthetics to create visually captivating and emotionally charged installations. Her works often blur the boundaries between reality and illusion, inviting viewers to question their perception of the world around them.

An Introspection into Symbolism and Narrative

Ulla Von Brandenburg's works are characterized by a rich symbolism and intricate narratives. She masterfully weaves together elements of costume design, theatrical sets, and storytelling to create immersive experiences for her audience. Each artwork is meticulously crafted to evoke a specific mood or atmosphere, often drawing upon historical references and cultural iconography.

Von Brandenburg's use of fabric and textiles is particularly noteworthy. She employs these materials not only for their tactile qualities but also for their ability to evoke a sense of nostalgia and comfort. The textiles serve as a canvas for her intricate patterns and motifs, adding layers of meaning to each piece. Through her choice of materials, Von Brandenburg invites viewers to reflect on themes of identity, memory, and the human experience.

The Power of Collaboration

Collaboration plays a crucial role in Von Brandenburg's artistic practice. She often works with performers, musicians, and theater professionals to bring her installations to life. Through these collaborations, she explores the intersection of different art forms, blurring the boundaries between visual arts and performing arts.

One of Von Brandenburg's notable collaborations was her participation in the 2015 Venice Biennale. Titled "SWEETS – Les Chocolats de l'Artiste," the installation combined elements of theater, film, and live performance to create an immersive experience for visitors. The collaboration with actors, musicians, and stage designers brought together diverse artistic talents, resulting in a truly unique and engaging showcase.

From a background rich in literature and the history of arts and architecture—as well as psychoanalysis, spiritism and magic—Ulla von Brandenburg explores the shaping of our social constructs with borrowings from theatrical codes and mechanisms, together with esoteric rituals and popular ceremonies. For her exhibition at the Palais de Tokyo she has conceived a total, constantly evolving project inspired by the theatre, its imaginary realm and its conventions. With ritual as her starting point, she invites the public to experience an immersive reinterpretation of the themes, forms and motifs—including movement, the stage, colour, music and textiles—that fuel her oeuvre.

Book published on the occasion of Ulla von Brandenburg’s solo exhibition at the Palais de Tokyo, 21.02 – 13.09.2020
