Being baptized and following the Lord has made Al's life harder than it ever was before. She endured criticism from friends and family for becoming a Mormon. She faced harsh judgments from Church members for her appearance. She gave up everything and felt more alone than she ever had in her life. All because she chose God. Now she shares an up-close look at how trusting God has led her to places she never expected. As a blogger, YouTuber, and award-winning public speaker, her message has reached millions. Sharing her love of the Savior, Al goes beyond her own conversion and encourages readers to choose God above everything else. This uplifting book inspires readers to build a true relationship with the Lord that will bring them real, lasting happiness. This second edition includes additional photographs, and a new chapter detailing Al's life since the first release of More than the Tattooed Mormon and her continued reliance on and devotion to God.
