Amazing true story about American heroes who relied on faith, truth and law to challenge tyranny at every level! (Adventure, Philosophy)

A testimony of faith from ordinary citizens who stood on their beliefs and had corrupt tyrants running scared!

With a background in International Business, Rex Freeman was recruited heavily by the C.I.A. to do work overseas under private cover. He endured a gruelling screening process which spanned nearly 8 months. When he was finally invited to the Langley headquarters to make the final step, he declined the offer. Being a man of strong principles he knew wouldn't fit in any situation in which he'd have to sell his soul for black ops.

It wasn't long before he had a run in with the I.R.S. which didn't suit him much. He uncovered fraud in the process and this led him to start studying the law. The more he studied, the more fraud, deception and misapplication of the law he uncovered and it wasn't long before he became a citizen advocate for civil rights and lawful government. Instead of working 'for' the government as he nearly did, he was now attacking it head on and trying to put overzealous tyrants back in their proper place as servants to their masters, the people.

Rex became very public with weekly seminars and public training exposing the corruption and then offering solutions on what people can do about it to protect themselves and hold tyrants accountable. This led to a radio show and that 'did it'. He became a threat to 'business as usual' by the 'status quo'. The game was on and he became a target for persecution. The more government tried to silence him, the more he discovered through his networks and contacts and he became even more effective in countering their attacks and suppression tactics. They threw him in jail, and he broadcast his radio show from the phone in his cell pod interviewing the inmates about abuses they had suffered. They couldn't silence him. He wouldn't back down. The more they threatened him, the more he pushed back and exposed their iniquity for all to see.

Rex and others like him took on;

- Overzealous Police

- The Corrupt Courts
- An unlawful I.R.S.
- Corrupt Public Officials
- The Fed and the U.S. Treasury

>>> They proved that the Government Goliath could be humbled by their Citizen Masters!

We all know that 'Knowledge is Power'. Rex and others like him had acquired the knowledge and the power to defend themselves and challenge 'the machine' which so many of us feel so helpless to stand up against. This is a story of faith and hope! It is a gripping adventure. It's a testimony to the power of the Holy Spirit. It's entertaining and funny! Yet it is as serious as a heart attack. You will be enlightened when you learn some of the amazing discoveries that were made and you will see the key issues that have bound you over to servitude in our current system of law.

>>> Lessons and Discoveries for all Americans & Freedom Lovers Worldwide

The issues raised in this book are critical to understand as it comes down to pure operation of law and how your rights are converted into privileges regulated by the government. Which do you prefer; the status quo where temporary government granted privileges can be suspended on a whim? Or immutable Natural, God Given rights, which nobody can infringe upon? The choice is yours.

Reclaim those natural rights. Understand the issues.

Read this book to advance your knowledge on many issues which have been hidden from the public. Enjoy this Christian testimonial and claim the power of the Holy Spirit that we shall occupy with boldness and fervor until Jesus returns to claim his bride !
