What readers are saying about the romantic comedy 'Are My Roots Showing?'

"It's a charming book which can be read as a light-hearted tale but there is a lot of meaning beneath the surface. As an exploration of how it feels to belong to and reconcile two cultures, it's really successful. It offers humour, sadness and wisdom as well as an entertaining read. Just beautiful!"

"Although 'Are My Roots Showing?' explores some serious themes, it's all done with a very light touch and a lot of laugh-out-loud humour. The characterisations are exquisite."

"Fantastic. A Polish Bridget Jones. Funny, and yet the Polish history interjections are interesting too. Makes me want to visit Poland, but I need to take my own food!!! You'll understand once you've read it."
