2. In the same pot, add the chopped onion, diced carrots, sliced celery, minced garlic, dried thyme, and bay leaf. Sauté the vegetables until they are slightly softened and aromatic.

3. Pour in the chicken broth and bring it to a boil. Reduce the heat and let it simmer for about 20 minutes to allow the flavors to meld together.

4. In a separate small pot, poach the eggs by bringing water to a gentle simmer. Crack one egg into a bowl and gently slide it into the simmering water. Repeat the process with the remaining eggs. Cook the eggs for about 4-5 minutes or until the whites are set but the yolk is still runny.

5. Once the soup has simmered, remove the bay leaf and add the shredded chicken into the pot. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Let the soup cook for another 10 minutes to allow the chicken to heat through.

6. To serve, ladle the soup into bowls and carefully place a poached egg on top of each portion. Sprinkle some chopped fresh parsley for garnish, and voila! You have created a masterpiece - a hearty chicken soup with a surprise twist that is guaranteed to impress.
