I have shown my work in Exhibitions and solo shows throughout Minnesota and California. My fine art nudes have been featured in Juxtapoze online as well as Editorial magazine. I have also been awarded the picture of the day three times by the editors of Vogue Italia.

I think Model Society Magazine is the finest magazine being published right now. To be asked to be part of that is incredibly special. The fact that we're doing a book to feature my work feels like a high pinnacle of recognition.

That's important to me because I don't do this for money. Getting the work out there, getting the work seen, and having it be appreciated is what matters most to me.
