Immerse yourself in picturesque landscapes as you venture along the riverbanks, witnessing the vibrant colors of summer flora and the gentle flow of crystal-clear water. These walks provide the perfect opportunity to escape the hustle and bustle of daily life and reconnect with the serene beauty of nature.

Part Eight: Summer Magic

This year, summer in 2021 promises to be an exceptional one. As we embark on Part Eight of our River Lagan walks series, we embark on a magical journey filled with hidden gems and breathtaking sights.

Start your adventure at Sir Thomas and Lady Dixon Park, a majestic parkland that surrounds the Lagan Valley Regional Park. The park boasts immaculate gardens, enchanting woodland, and stunning floral displays that will leave you in awe. Stroll along the riverbank, taking in the fragrant scents and tranquil atmosphere that make this location a favorite among locals and tourists alike.

As you continue your walk, you'll come across Shaw's Bridge, a historic stone bridge that stands as a testament to the architectural marvels of the past. Take a moment to admire the craftsmanship and reflect on the stories it holds.

Further on, you'll encounter Lagan Meadows, a wildlife haven that provides a sanctuary for a variety of flora and fauna. Keep your eyes peeled for soaring birds, playful otters, and elegant deer as you meander through this ecological treasure trove.

Continue your journey and make your way towards Clement Wilson Park, a hidden gem that offers stunning panoramic views of the river and its surroundings. Marvel at the contrast between the tranquil water and the bustling cityscape in the distance.

Embracing Nature's Playground

The beauty of River Lagan walks lies not only in its stunning landscapes but also in the wealth of recreational activities it offers. From cycling and jogging to fishing and boating, this natural playground has something to offer to everyone.

Grab your bicycle and explore the river on the Comber Greenway, a 7-mile green corridor that runs along the old Belfast to Comber railway line. Delight in the ever-changing scenery as you pedal away, surrounded by verdant fields and the gentle flow of the river.

If you prefer a more adventurous activity, why not try kayaking or canoeing? With various rental services available along the river, you can unleash your inner adventurer and navigate the waters at your own pace.

For those seeking tranquility and relaxation, find a quiet spot by the riverbank and indulge in a day of fishing. With an abundance of fish species inhabiting the river, anglers can enjoy the thrill of reeling in their catch while surrounded by the stunning scenery.

Don't Miss Out on Summer Fun

River Lagan walks Part Eight is your ticket to a summer filled with adventure, enchantment, and unforgettable moments. Escape the confines of routine and embark on a journey that will awaken your senses and invigorate your soul.

So, pack your walking shoes, grab your camera, and get ready to explore the magical wonders of River Lagan walks. The beauty of summer awaits, and it's time to make memories that will last a lifetime.

Once more I take you on a few more walks along the River Lagan, her towpaths, parks and pathways revealing the amazing wildlife and scenery they have to offer.

I never tire of getting out and about each week in Mother Nature, if only for an hour or so, which is good for my health, mental health and well-being.

Once more in part eight of my River Lagan Walks you will see some amazing wildlife and scenery in and around the River Lagan, her towpaths, parks and pathways. and my continuing quest to photograph the elusive Kingfishers, but as you will see within this edition of my River Lagan Walks, I am getting closer to getting a perfect photograph of the Kingfishers or even a Kingfisher each evening I am out.

So come along with me for a few more walks along the River Lagan, her towpaths, parks and pathways and see what they have to offer in Belfast, Northern Ireland.

Photography is my Therapy and Writing is my Passion.
