From the moment Augusten steps foot into the Finch household, readers are transported into a world filled with chaos, dysfunction, and deeply flawed characters. With a mother struggling with mental illness, an absent father, and a psychiatrist who blurs the lines between professional and personal boundaries, Augusten finds himself in the eye of an emotional hurricane.

Despite the challenges he faces, Augusten manages to maintain his resilience and sense of humor. The story is filled with poignant moments where humor acts as a coping mechanism, allowing Augusten to navigate his way through the turbulent events of his life.

Themes of Survival and Resilience

Running With Scissors explores themes of survival and resilience against all odds. It delves into the power of the human spirit to overcome adversity and find strength in the most unexpected places.

Augusten's journey towards self-discovery is both poignant and heart-wrenching. From being caught in the middle of his parents' toxic relationship to his unconventional upbringing under the care of Dr. Finch's unorthodox methods, Augusten's story is a testament to his ability to endure extreme circumstances.

Throughout the memoir, Augusten's voice resounds with authenticity, allowing readers to experience the raw emotions of his tumultuous journey. His ability to find humor amidst the chaos brings a unique perspective to the narrative, making it both entertaining and thought-provoking.

The Impact and Popularity of Running With Scissors

Since its publication, Running With Scissors has become a bestseller, captivating readers with its highly descriptive and engaging narrative. The memoir's ability to expose the dark underbelly of unconventional family dynamics while highlighting the strength of human resilience has resonated with a wide audience.

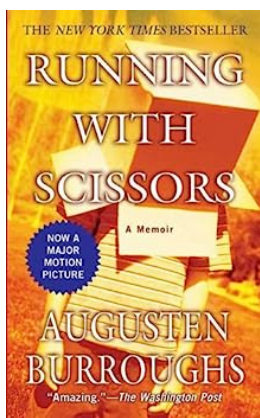

The book's success can be attributed to its ability to tackle difficult subjects with honesty and sensitivity. It invites readers to reflect on the complexities of mental illness, dysfunctional family dynamics, and the ways in which we navigate through the challenges life throws at us.

Running With Scissors has also been adapted into a major motion picture, further cementing its place in popular culture. The film, released in 2006, starred Annette Bening, Alec Baldwin, and Joseph Fiennes, bringing Augusten's story to life on the big screen.

Now including an excerpt from Lust & Wonder, a new memoir coming in March 2016.

Running with Scissors is the true story of a boy whose mother (a poet with delusions of Anne Sexton) gave him away to be raised by her psychiatrist, a dead-ringer for Santa and a lunatic in the bargain. Suddenly, at age twelve, Augusten Burroughs found himself living in a dilapidated Victorian in perfect squalor. The doctor's bizarre family, a few patients, and a pedophile living in the backyard shed completed the tableau. Here, there were no rules, there was no school. The Christmas tree stayed up until summer, and Valium was eaten like Pez. And when things got dull, there was always the vintage electroshock therapy machine under the stairs....

Running with Scissors is at turns foul and harrowing, compelling and maniacally funny. But above all, it chronicles an ordinary boy's survival under the most extraordinary circumstances.
