

Salad Anniversary - A Timeless Collection of Heartfelt Emotions

Salad Anniversary is a remarkable poetry collection created by the talented Japanese poet, Machi Tawara. This anthology, included in the renowned Pushkin Collection, holds the power to captivate readers with its expressive verses and evoke a wide array of emotions. With the use of simple yet profound language, Tawara paints a vivid picture of love, longing, and the human experience.

One of the distinctive features of Salad Anniversary is the use of haiku-style poems, a traditional form of Japanese poetry consisting of three lines. Despite the brevity of each poem, Tawara manages to convey immense depths of thought and emotion. The minimalist approach, combined with the precise choice of vocabulary, creates a unique synergy that resonates with readers around the world.

The Essence of Salad Anniversary

Salad Anniversary explores the themes of love, romance, and introspection. Tawara weaves the essence of these topics into her verses, bringing forth an intense sentimentality that grips the reader's heart. Through her words, she immortalizes the fleeting moments of a relationship, capturing the delicate beauty found in everyday life.

Machi Tawara's first book of poems, The Anniversary of the Salad combines the classical 'tanka' form with the subject of a modern love affair. It became a sensation, selling over 2 million copies - and the 'salad phenomenon' in Japanese culture was comparable to the 'bananamania' that followed publication of the first novel by Tawara's contemporary Banana Yoshimoto. Contains 15 poems:

'August Morning'
'Baseball Game'
'Morning Necktie'
'I Am the Wind'
'Summertime Ship'
'Wake-up Call'
'Hashimoto High School'
'Pretending to Wait for Someone'
'Salad Anniversary'
'Twilight Alley'
'My Bisymmetrical Self'
'So, Good Luck'
'Jazz Concert'
'Backstreet Cat'
'Always American'
