By using my journey as a single mom to six children, the magical, bad and the downright ugly, I hope to help inspire and open the door to better decision making from other single moms that are struggling to find themselves and provide a positive mindset for their children.

It isn't easy but it's certainly possible.

I want to let other moms know as long as they are doing the best they can, they should be proud of themselves.

I'd like to use my life experiences as a tool to encourage other women to accept and love themselves for doing the best they can. I want to give hope and positively influence you to keep on going no matter how much life kicks the crap out of you.

There's always hope.

There's always tomorrow.

There's always good in everything. Sometimes you've just got to dig deeper.

If I can help just one person feel better then I'm smiling inside out. I yearn to lift women up and help them gain strength through my screw-ups. You deserve to be happy.

Why people look to hurt the already wounded I will never understand.

I am trying to be courageous by opening up, not for sympathy but to use my life journey to help other women any way I can. Hopefully you will screw up less than me. That's the plan anyway.
