This is not a rehashed book of theories. This two part book, Tournament Play and Cash Games, is for serious players who are willing to change their mind set and accept mathematical and proven strategies that will see them at more final tables and in the money.

Cash game players will have a new and tested concept that turns losers into winners provided they are prepared to face criticism and fear while learning how to beat the casino. This book is NOT for those playing poker as a social night out with friends. THIS BOOK IS ABOUT PLAYING TO WIN!
