BECKY SAMPSON, better known as Staff Sergeant Sampson to those who work with her at Camp Pendleton, has built a life on being decisive, motivated, and most of all, self-sufficient. Nearly eleven years as a United States Marine has given her everything she needed, while her friends provided the family she never had. It's those friends who inadvertently put tall, dark, and handsome MATTEO GRECI, into her path.

For Becky, though, this isn't a simple love story – nothing seems simple for her after returning from deployment in Afghanistan. She would love nothing more than to be absorbed in, and excited about, this new diversion. Instead, she is forced to learn how to rediscover her self-confidence, while coping with the dark side of being a Marine in a time of world conflict. It'll take all of her inner strength, and the support of those who love her, to see her through, and remind her why Her Heart Bleeds Scarlet and Gold.
