Here it is an ideal gift for your loved ones as a beautifully compiled book of love poems !!The casual, but incisive wit of Akhtar Mehmood, entices the reader into a no man's land: explosive heartbreaks, erotic musings, tales of love lost, earned sorrow, and a bone-crushing sense of loneliness in a crowded world. He wraps modern love in sensuous velvety metaphors, unheard in typical poetry books. His poetry has found fans worldwide who cherish his sad overtones and a touch of darkness, even when he decodes self-love in many forms. Many elements find their ways into his poems about being alone and scared, like the Moon and its Stars, The Ocean and its Waves, and the Sun and her Flowers. Through his vast imaginative powers in his poetry of love, he gives voice to the things we can not say in our everyday lives.
