He's Fear.

He's Here.

Beware.

Prepare.

For years now, society has turned its back on Fear. Whether due to stress or pressure, many people began to find that life was much easier without the incessant critiquing and urgency that Fear often elicited. Fear, being a stubborn and fragile force, allowed this new fearlessness to take hold amongst your civilization, as believe it or not, his feelings were hurt.

At least, until now.

Fear can no longer watch the world crumble under the force of their own hubris and passion. Many of you may not know this, but Fear has been sworn to protect our species since the dawn of time. Though the promotion of fearlessness has never been greater, it is time, once more, to give Fear a chance.

This literary work is a collection of letters written to us by Fear's hand.

Well, the first half is. The second half is written by Love.

Love, who has never left our side, remains accepting and hopeful that the human race can rise above their differences. Love believes in us. Love has always believed in us. However, Love is now exhausted and confused.
