

The Interlinear Greek English New Testament: Unlocking the Secrets of the Word

Bible study is an essential part of the spiritual journey for many believers. It allows us to delve deeper into the sacred texts, gaining a better understanding of God's message to humanity. However, language barriers can often hinder our full comprehension of the original biblical texts. This is where The Interlinear Greek

English New Testament comes to the rescue, bridging the gap between the ancient Greek and contemporary English languages.

Unlocking the Secrets of the Word

One of the most remarkable features of The Interlinear Greek English New Testament is its ability to provide a parallel translation of the Greek text, word by word, alongside the corresponding English translation. This innovative format empowers readers with a more accurate understanding of the original language, shedding light on subtle nuances and deeper meanings that are often lost in traditional translations.

This is the Interlinear Greek / English New Testament. A semi-literal translation is provided for each Greek word, with a balanced attempt to keep faithful to the full verse rendering of the King James Bible. The result is an excellent resource for those seeking to become better acquainted with the original Greek texts (the base text is the 1904 Nestle version).

This version is also cross-linked to James Strong's Greek Dictionary of the New Testament, allowing one to quickly check the definition of every Greek word.
