

The Letter Every Son Needs From His Father

Dear Son,

As your father, there are so many things I want to express to you, but sometimes words fail to fully capture the depth of emotions and lessons I wish to share.

Today, however, I have decided to put pen to paper and write you a letter - a letter that every son needs from his father. This is not just any letter; it is a heartfelt message that encapsulates my love, hopes, and dreams for you.

Before I begin, I want you to know that the love I have for you is unconditional and unending. From the moment you entered this world, you changed my life in ways I never thought possible. You became my purpose, my motivation, and my greatest source of happiness. It is my duty as your father to guide and assist you in becoming the best version of yourself.

One important lesson I want to impart upon you is the significance of perseverance. Life is full of challenges and setbacks, but it is through these obstacles that we grow and become stronger. Remember that success is not solely measured by accomplishments or material possessions, but by the resilience and determination you display in the face of adversity.

Another crucial aspect of life is relationships - both platonic and romantic. Treat others with respect, kindness, and compassion. Surround yourself with people who inspire you, lift you up, and bring out the best in you. As you navigate the intricacies of love and friendship, always trust your instincts and never settle for less than you deserve.

Education is also paramount, my son. Embrace knowledge, seek it out passionately, and never stop learning. Knowledge is power, and it provides you with the tools and opportunities to make a positive impact in the world. Keep your mind open, indulge in diverse perspectives, and never shy away from intellectual curiosity.

But amidst all these life lessons, remember to take time for joy and happiness. Life is fleeting, my dear son, and it is important to savor every precious moment. Embrace your passions and pursue what brings you pure bliss. Remember that true wealth is found in experiences, memories, and genuine connections - not in material possessions alone.

As you journey through life, know that I am always here for you. There will be times when you stumble, face disappointment, or even doubt your own abilities. But in those moments, turn to the values, wisdom, and love that I have poured into this letter.

So, my son, always believe in yourself and your capabilities. You are capable of changing the world in ways both big and small. Your potential is limitless, and there is nothing that you cannot achieve if you set your mind to it. Remember to always be true to yourself, follow your passions, and never lose sight of the incredible person you are.

Know that my love for you is eternal, and I will forever be proud to call you my son.

With all my love,

Your Father

As dad, you have a deep sense to provide and protect your sons. You have a desire to see them grow up to become great men. How will they become those great men, but if not for you calling them to it?

What if you never get that chance? How will they know the path? If you knew you were not going to be at their wedding or birth of their first child, what would you say to them?

Through this faith-based, very personal, and humorous story, Dustin Kaehr shares the letter he has written for his four sons when (not if, when) something happens to him. Through his story, learn the ten sentences every son needs to hear, why they need to hear them, and be encouraged to pick up a pen and start writing.

“The one thing my dad wasn’t the best at was expressing himself and sharing his feelings. As I have read this book, it has become obvious that it is an answer to many prayers. It has given me the opportunity to do something with my boys that I craved from my dad.” Eric (sons ages 12, 10)

“You have forced me out of my comfort zone to try to become not just a better person, but a better husband and father as well. This book has and will play a large role in that.” Greg (sons ages 14, 10)

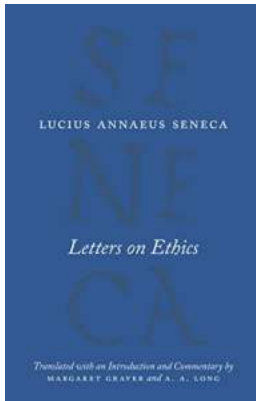

“We are dads and some of the strangest creatures on earth. We are driven to protect our children, then we give them power tools and a motorcycle when they are way too young! You are going to make many dads happy with this book. You have started with one today.” Brian (son age 23)

“Let me say ‘Wow!’ I started reading this today and I had to stop after only reading the intro and a little bit of the first chapter. I would not admit this to most, but I was choked up. I needed to read this right now and did not even know it. Again, thank you.”

Wes (sons ages 12, 9, 3)

“The idea behind this is awesome! Whether or not the rest of the world sees this or not, I can say this has already made an impact on me and hopefully my son and future grandsons.”

Josh (son age 8)
