Unveiling the Mysteries

The Divinatory Ritual of the Pythoness was a complex process that required utmost dedication and reverence. It began with purification rituals involving fasting, bathing, and abstaining from worldly pleasures. Only then could the Pythoness enter a trance-like state, allowing her to connect with the divine forces.

The ritual took place in the heart of the temple, within a chamber known as the adyton. Here, the Pythoness would sit atop a tripod, inhaling the sacred vapors emanating from a crack on the ground. These vapors were believed to induce a heightened state of consciousness.

As the Pythoness entered her trance, her body would convulse, and her eyes would roll back. She became a vessel for the god Apollo to speak through her. Visitors seeking answers to their burning questions would approach the Pythoness, presenting their queries in the hope of receiving divine guidance.
