A bewitching board book for tiny magic makers.

C is for Coven is a reinterpretation of a classic alphabet book, matching each letter of the ABCs with a rhyming phrase that teaches kids about witchcraft.

Instead of A is for Apple and D is for Dog, A is for Altar and D is for Drawing Down the Moon. From the author of Brina: A Pagan Picture Book, this bewitching and adorable board book will make learning the ABCs fun, magical, and memorable for the whole family.

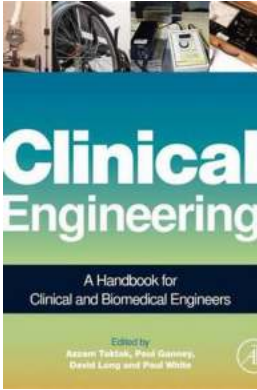

A is for Altar, set up in my room,
Stones, figurines, and a small bundled broom.

B is for Besom, that broom's magic name,
For clearing a space with intention and aim.

C is for Coven, a circle of trust,
Conjuring energy, potent and just.

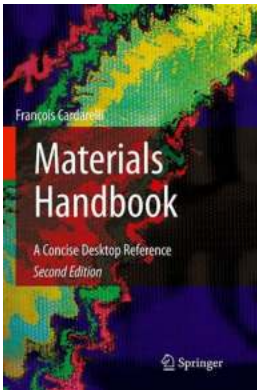

D is for Drawing Down the Moon,
Invoking the Goddess in ritual tune.

C is for Coven is a great addition to baby, toddler, and pre-school libraries in homes embracing Paganism, new age spirituality, Earth based religion, witchcraft, Wicca, and other more. Whether you already embrace these practices at home or want to expose your child to something unfamiliar, C is for Coven is an easy to follow that will keep both kids and parents entertained.
