

Unveiling the Untold Story: Winning The Racing Life Of Paul Newman

When we hear the name Paul Newman, our minds often drift towards Hollywood and his remarkable legacy as an actor. But did you know that behind the glitz and glamour of the silver screen, Newman had an equally exhilarating and victorious life as a professional racing driver?

The Birth of a Passion

Before diving into the remarkable racing career of Paul Newman, let's take a moment to uncover the origins of this unexpected love affair. Newman, known for his extraordinary talent as an actor, discovered his true passion for racing in the late 1960s. It was during the filming of the motion picture "Winning" that he forged a connection with the sport that would change his life forever.

From Rookie to Champion

After dipping his toes into the world of racing, Newman's determination and competitive spirit propelled him to new heights. Over the years, he honed his skills and earned the respect of the racing community. His dedication paid off, and in 1979, Newman secured an impressive second-place finish at the iconic 24 Hours of Le Mans.

Not one to rest on his laurels, Newman continued to push the boundaries of his capabilities. He teamed up with the legendary Bob Sharp to create Newman/Sharp Racing, a partnership that paved the way for a series of triumphs. Their success highlighted Newman's unwavering commitment to racing as more than just a hobby.

A Legacy That Lives On

Newman's dedication to motorsports extended far beyond his own personal achievements. He actively contributed to the growth of the sport, supporting young and aspiring drivers through the creation of the renowned "Newman's Own" racing team. This philanthropic endeavor not only provided opportunities for emerging talent but also showcased Newman's unwavering love for the racing world.

Even in his later years, Newman's commitment to racing remained unshaken. He continued to compete and inspire others until his retirement in 2005. His impact on both Hollywood and the racing community was undeniable, making him a true legend off and on the track.

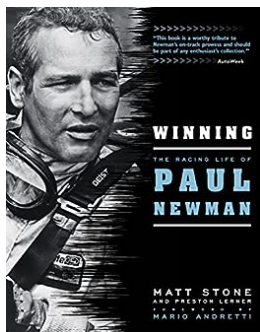

The Lasting Legacy

The racing world lost a remarkable icon when Paul Newman passed away in 2008. However, his legacy lives on not only in the films he left behind but also in the hearts of those who continue to be inspired by his unwavering passion for speed. To this day, his name stands as a testament to the thrilling and awe-inspiring journey that racing enthusiasts embark upon.

Beyond the Silver Screen

Paul Newman may be remembered for his captivating performances and Academy Award-winning roles, but his story extends far beyond the silver screen. Through his passion for racing, he demonstrated that life is a race worth living to the fullest. Whether it is reaching for greatness on the track or pursuing dreams off it, Newman's story serves as a reminder that one should never be afraid to take the wheel and chase their deepest desires.

Winner of International Automotive Media Gold Award 2010 For all his fame as one of Hollywood's great actors, a world-class humanitarian, and the proprietor of a natural food empire, the late Paul Newman had another intriguing facet that was less known and perhaps closer to his heart than all the rest of his well-chronicled life. He was an avid, successful and well respected car racer and team owner. This book tells that story--from Newman's racing career, begun in earnest at an age when many race car drivers contemplate retirement; to the partnership he formed in 1983 with Chicago racing entrepreneur and team owner Carl Haas; to the impressive stable of automobiles he owned, from the Porsches and Ferraris to quirkier modified VWs and Volvos. This is the tale of a life full of passion and skill, of someone who entered the 24 Hours of Daytona at the age of 70 and made his last professional race outing at 82; whose roster of drivers for Newman/Hass reads as a who's who of open wheel racing; and whose interest in cars extended from the likely suspects to old trucks and new hybrids. And then there's the charming pal who, when the incorrigible prankster Robert Redford had a miserably wrecked Ferrari dropped at his front door, returned the favor by having the car, crushed into a cube, delivered to Redford's living room. The anecdotes, the races, the cars--all are here, adding up to what for many would be a full life, but for Paul Newman was simply another side of a man of talent, conviction, and enduring spirit.
