One of the most astonishing chapters focuses on ancient megalithic structures found around the world. The author examines structures such as the Pyramids of Giza, Stonehenge, and Machu Picchu, presenting evidence that challenges the traditional narrative. Through detailed diagrams, scientific studies, and expert analysis, the book suggests that these structures could have been built with a level of precision and knowledge that surpasses our present capabilities.

Moreover, "We Are Not The First 2019 Edition" dives deep into the realm of ancient civilizations that possessed advanced knowledge in various fields, including astronomy, engineering, medicine, and more. The book provides compelling evidence that these civilizations had access to technologies and information far beyond what was previously believed to be possible.

One of the most intriguing aspects of the book is the exploration of forbidden archaeology and suppressed discoveries. It sheds light on artifacts, documents, and findings that challenge mainstream academia and are often dismissed or intentionally kept hidden. The author showcases these obscure artifacts and presents plausible explanations for their existence, opening a window to a world of possibilities that conventional history tried to bury.

The remarkable breakthroughs detailed in this edition of "We Are Not The First" carry significant implications for our understanding of human origins and the cyclical nature of civilization. The book raises profound questions about the potential rise and fall of advanced societies throughout history, a concept that resonates with the cyclic theories expounded by numerous ancient cultures.

As captivating as the content of "We Are Not The First 2019 Edition" is, it also stands out due to the stunning visuals that accompany the text. The book is filled with high-resolution images, maps, and diagrams that enhance the reader's understanding and provide a visually stimulating experience.

This thought-provoking book invites readers to challenge the accepted narrative of human history and join the quest for knowledge and truth. "We Are Not The First 2019 Edition" encourages a paradigm shift in our understanding of the past and invites us to explore the fascinating possibilities that lie beyond conventional boundaries.

In , "We Are Not The First 2019 Edition" is a captivating journey into the unknown, gracefully blending scientific research, expert analysis, and cutting-edge discoveries. The book challenges our preconceived notions about history, offering an alternative perspective that is both enlightening and mind-expanding. Strap yourself in for a rollercoaster ride through the annals of time, as you embark on an adventure that will forever change the way you perceive humanity's place in the universe.

We Are Not The First: Riddles of Ancient Science.

- Robots and computers were a reality centuries before Norbert Wiener. The early inhabitants of England used a computer in stone - Stonehenge - to forecast solar and lunar eclipses.
- An Ancient Hindu book gives detailed instructions for the construction of aircraft - ages before the Wright brothers.
- The Australian aborigines have practiced blood transfusion since prehistoric times, yet this method is relatively new to Western medicine.

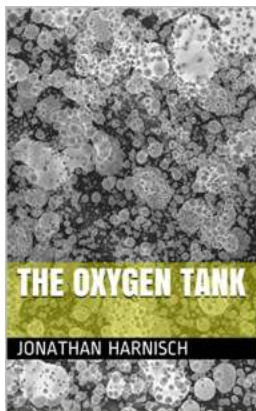

Andrew Tomas presents the stunning theory that an unknown civilization in Time or Space left the legacy of advanced culture to the peoples of antiquity, proving his remarkable view of the true age of 'modern' science with an impressive array of facts and fascinating descriptions.

Revised and updated for the 21st Century.
