

Who Will Change The Way You See The World

The world is a vast and diverse place, filled with wonders waiting to be discovered. However, our preconceived notions and limited perspectives often prevent us from truly experiencing all that it has to offer. Thankfully, there are individuals who have dedicated their lives to breaking barriers, challenging societal norms, and changing the way we see the world.

Dr. Jane Goodall is a renowned primatologist and conservationist who has devoted her life to studying and protecting chimpanzees. Her groundbreaking research and observations have shed light on the intricate social behavior and intelligence of these incredible animals.

Through her work, Dr. Goodall has shown us that animals are not mere objects or commodities, but rather sentient beings that deserve our respect and protection. Her efforts have not only expanded our understanding of the natural world but have also inspired countless individuals to take action and make a difference.

2. Elon Musk - Revolutionizing the Future of Technology

Elon Musk is a visionary entrepreneur who has revolutionized numerous industries, including electric vehicles, renewable energy, and space exploration. His companies Tesla, SpaceX, and SolarCity have not only pushed boundaries and developed groundbreaking technologies but have also challenged conventional wisdom.

By pushing the limits of what is possible, Musk has changed the way we perceive our future. His ambitious goals of colonizing Mars, reducing our dependence on fossil fuels, and developing sustainable transportation have sparked a global movement towards innovation and a renewed sense of hope for a better world.

3. Malala Yousafzai - Advocating for Education and Equality

Malala Yousafzai is a Pakistani activist who, at a young age, stood up against the Taliban's prohibition on girls' education. Her unwavering determination and courage in the face of adversity have made her a global symbol of female empowerment and education.

Through her advocacy, Malala has opened doors for millions of girls around the world, ensuring that they have access to quality education and the opportunity to shape their own futures. Her story has reshaped our understanding of the power of education and the necessity of equal rights for all.

4. Sean Swarner - Conquering Medical Odds and Inspiring Others

Sean Swarner is a remarkable individual who has defied all odds. Despite being diagnosed with two terminal forms of cancer at a young age, Swarner became the first cancer survivor to reach the summit of Mount Everest. His determination and resilience have inspired countless individuals facing similar challenges.

Through his foundation, CancerClimber Association, Swarner has provided support and motivation to cancer patients, urging them to never give up and to live life to the fullest. His story has changed perceptions about what is possible and serves as a constant reminder that the human spirit knows no bounds.

5. Wangari Maathai - Environmental Activism and Empowerment

Wangari Maathai was a Kenyan environmental activist and the first African woman to win the Nobel Peace Prize. Through her organization, the Green Belt Movement, she empowered local communities to engage in reforestation and environmental conservation efforts.

Maathai's work highlighted the interconnectedness of environmental sustainability, social justice, and gender equality. By planting trees and promoting sustainable development, she changed the way we perceive the relationship between humans and their environment, emphasizing the importance of collective action for a better future.

These individuals have defied expectations, shattered boundaries, and challenged conventional thinking. Through their remarkable achievements and unwavering dedication, they have changed the way we see the world.

Whether it is through groundbreaking scientific research, inspiring entrepreneurship, advocating for equal rights, conquering medical odds, or promoting environmental sustainability, these changemakers have left an indelible mark on society.

By recognizing and celebrating their contributions, we are reminded of the power of human potential and the importance of pushing our limits. They inspire us to question the status quo, challenge what we know, and envision a world that is better, more inclusive, and more understanding.

200 incredible women. 126 hours of interviews. 16,000 photographs. 5 questions.

A snapshot of female life around the globe: This book includes interviews with 200 women from a variety of backgrounds takes you on a journey that's heartbreaking and uplifting. Each woman shares her unique reply to the same five questions: What really matters to you?, What brings you happiness?, What do you regard as the lowest depth of misery?, What would you change if you could?, and Which single word do you most identify with? The variety of answers offers gifts of empowerment and strength – inviting us to bring positive change at a time when so many are fighting for basic freedom and equality.

Interviewees include:

- Jane Goodall, conservation and animal welfare activist
- Margaret Atwood, author and winner of The Booker Prize
- Roxane Gay, author and feminist
- Renée Montagne, former host of NPR's Morning Edition
- Alicia Garza, activist and co-founder of Black Lives Matter
- Alfre Woodard, award-winning actor and activist
- Marian Wright Edelman, head of the Children's Defense Fund
- Lydia Ko, professional golfer and Olympian
- Dolores Huerta, labor activist, community organizer, and co-founder of the National Farm Workers Association
- Alice Waters, chef, author, and food rights advocate
- Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, author and Macarthur Foundation fellow

Each interview is accompanied by a photographic portrait, resulting in a volume that is compelling in word and image—and global in its scope and resonance. This landmark book is published to coincide with an interactive website, building on this remarkable, ever-evolving project.

200 Women reminds us that there are no ordinary women.

- Makes a wonderful birthday, graduation, going away gift, or coffee table gift for every woman to encourage personal growth.
- An empowering book for women, teen girls, or anyone looking for inspiration from luminaries across the world.
